HEADMASTER

To the Members of the Class of 1976:

I am glad to have been a part of your "B. H. S." life during these past four years!

It is often said that a mark of greatness is the determination to pursue a dream. I wish you many dreams, and the courage and energy to carry your dream to its logical and realizable end.

Sincerely yours,
Carmen P. Rinaldi

You ask me if fate
has chosen the best path
at the crossroads of life and I reply that she has chosen the only path

Men will lie on their backs,
talking about the fall of man,
and never make an effort
to get up

— Thoreau

Men do not understand books until they have had a certain amount of life;
. . . no man understands a deep book,
until he has seen and lived
at least part of its contents.

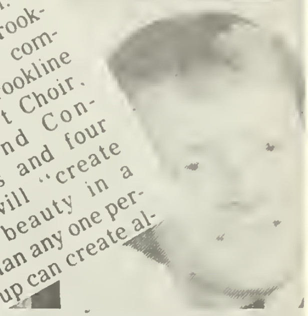
More than 200 voices will be heard in the "Ode to Joy", the Finale of Beethoven's Symphony no. 9 at the Brookline Youth Concert's 25th Anniversary Concert to be held Sunday, Nov. 9, at 7:30 p.m. in Roberts Auditorium, Brookline High School. The combined voices of the Brookline High School Concert Choir, the New England Conservatory Chorus and four guest soloists will "create more intense beauty in a united effort than any one person in the group can create alone."



Last Saturday at Downes Field, Boston Tech started off Brookline's football season by supplying them 20 points and taking nothing in return.

BLACK AWARENESS CLUB

The Black Awareness Club's activities center on Black History Week. We raise funds, recruit people, and organize activities for that time period, and also meet during the year to discuss occurrences about which Black students need to be informed.

FAR EAST CLUB

The Far East Club is a group of Oriental students who enjoy participating in activities together, while at the same time preserving our ancestral culture. Our major goals are to unify the Asian students of Brookline High, to make our presence known, and most important, to have fun. With an active membership of 25, the club fulfills these goals through numerous trips, other activities, and China Night. After the highly successful production of last year's show, the Far East Club hopes to produce another China Night, only with different events. It should be a year to remember.

PACKARD HOUSE ADVISORY LEAGUE

Packard House is the only house at B.H.S. that has an advisory league. Organized a few years ago by Mr. Webb and Mr. Gumbs, the group consists of juniors and seniors who spend the homeroom period in freshman and sophomore homerooms, helping the underclassmen with questions they may have about B.H.S. Through this group, we aim to close the communications gap between upper and lower classmen.

Señora Gutierrez, Faculty Advisor.

The Spanish Club has been revived this year, and the club has been learning more about various cultures of Latin America and Spain, and having fun doing so. Club activities have included a visit to Needham High School to see La Tuna, cha-cha-cha lessons, courtesy of Mr. Belliveau, and an excursion to the Spanish Festival in Boston. Members are in the process of planning International Week activities, including a fiesta of spanish food and dance.

ECOLOGY CLUB

The Brookline High Ecology Club developed out of the environmental awareness movement of the late '60's and early '70's. In the last few years, the Ecology Club has had to deal with a general student apathy towards our environment. However, this year, with many new members and many activities, the club seems to have regenerated.

In the past few years, our club has worked closely with the Brookline Conservation Commission, especially in regard to Earth Day, and the acquisition and upkeep of Hall's Pond. Other activities include a recycling program, occasional clean-ups, and currently, sponsoring a bill in the state legislature against no-return bottles.

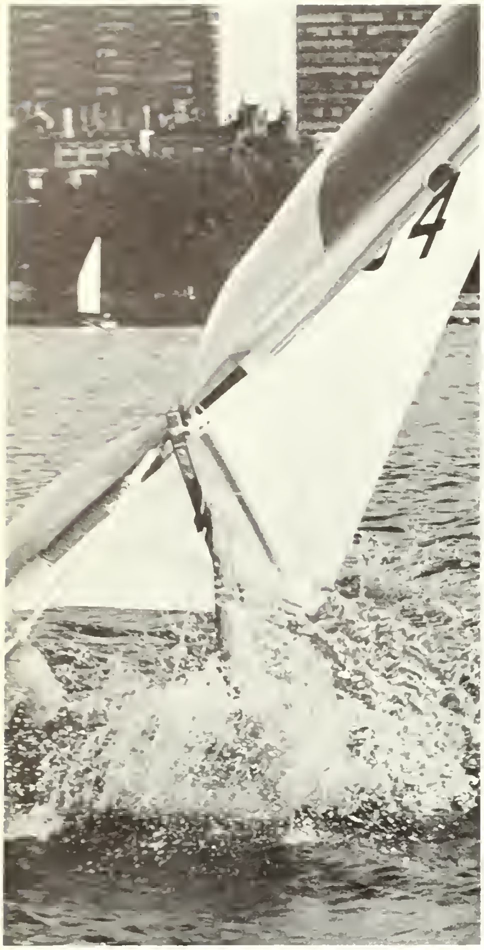
The Horseback Riding Club was created three years ago, by its current president, Karen Dana, with the objective of bringing together the many B.H.S. students who share a common interest in horses. The club provides a means for suburban kids to become involved in the art of equestrianship. On alternate weeks, two different groups of riders, beginners and intermediate-advanced, travel to a stable for lessons given at a slight discount. When we aren't riding, we watch films on horse shows and jumping, and participate in related activities to learn about riding and caring for horses.

SAILING CLUB



Picking up where it left off last spring, the Sailing Club has continued to grow and flourish. The Club sails at Community Boating on the Charles River in the spring, and participates in the new fall program offered at community. Although sailors' skills range from beginner to racer, the needs of both are met sufficiently through winter "shore school" classes in basic recreational sailing and in racing.

This spring, the club will form a Racing Team, which will compete against other schools as a Varsity Sport.

Initiated two years ago by Mr. C. J. Smith and interested students, the Scuba Club provides members of the BHS community with an opportunity to further their Scuba Diving activities. These include: regular club dives to various sites around the coastal region of Massachusetts. Overnight camping during weekends; and X-block pool sessions for instruction in underwater photography and practice in underwater hockey.

TOSCOB

By 7:30 on most any Saturday, Sunday or holiday, you will find our club heading north or west in a bus (we can't go east because the mountains there are underwater) for a day of hiking or snow-shoeing. After a long climb you'll find us sitting quietly at the top of the mountain, eating lunch. Since the fun of the trip is worth it, we don't mind the bus ride much at all!

Over the past few years, the Ski Club has not only grown in membership (to 30 members), but also expanded its activities to include four weekend trips and numerous day trips. Despite the size of the club, all active members feel a sense of belonging, and new members are always welcome.

SFA

In Front. Mr. Dedinsky, David Gold – Corresponding Secretary, Regina Hurley – Moderator, Louise Short – Recording Secretary. In Back: Ben Hood – Treasurer, Sarah Burke

During the 1971-72 school year, the Student-Faculty Assembly was formed, to establish a coalition government between the students and the faculty. This year, the size of the Executive Committee was cut from thirteen to five, although there are currently six members elected last May.

In September, the SFA sponsored Freshman Orientation Day; since then, they have been working on the problems of censorship, the Student-Faculty Lounge, involvement in the issues of the town election, and the major issues and problems at B.H.S.

VOLUNTEERS FOR COMMUNITY SERVICE

Mr. Gopen, Faculty Advisor

Volunteers for Community Service (V.C.S.) is a student-community service organization. It encompasses the Mental Health Club (programs for the emotionally disturbed and mentally retarded), Teen-agers serving kids (T.A.S.K.: after-school activities at neighborhood housing projects), and Big Brother / Big Sister (a one-to-one relationship with a lonely young boy or girl). Supervision is provided by trained community and social workers.

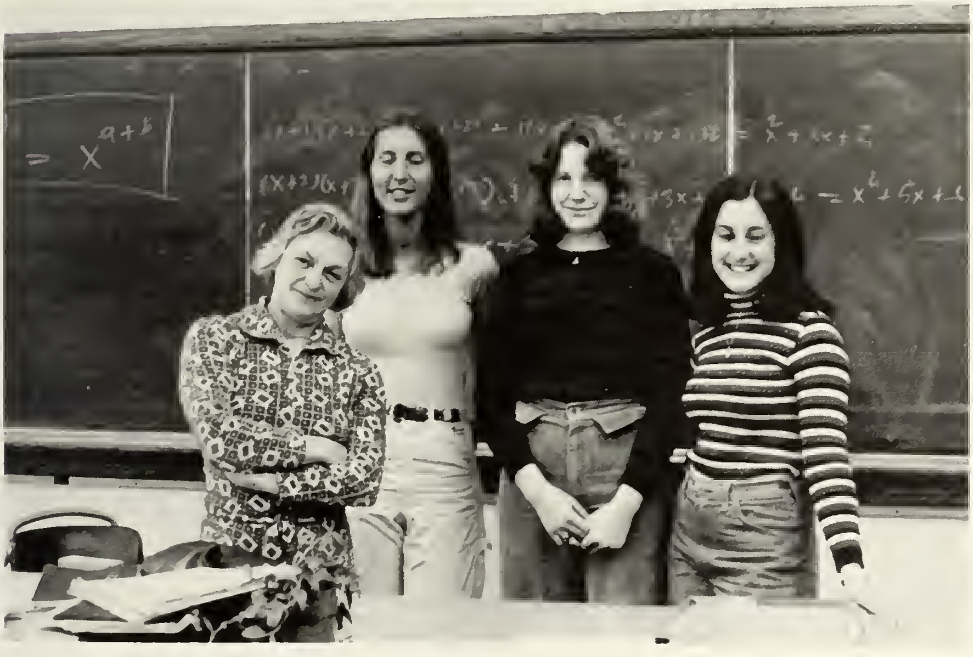
The Math Team is composed of eight students selected by the following league rules:

(1) at most three seniors may participate, and (2) the sum of Juniors and Seniors may not exceed six. The team represents the school in five competitions.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY



Mrs. Addelson, Laura Katz — Vice President, Linda Marks — President, Karen Smith — Treasurer.

Operating on a charter from national headquarters, the Brookline chapter of the National Honor Society is dedicated primarily to honoring scholarship. Members are chosen in the Junior and Senior years for superior academic achievement, character, leadership, and service. This year, we are attempting to resume an in school tutoring program.

The Debate Society is dedicated to furthering the art of interscholastic debating. After a three-year slump, the squad had come back to capture second place in the novice division at the Dartmouth tournament, and win many individual trophies.

Debating this year has been based upon the National Forensic League's resolution: "Resolved: that the development and allocation of scarce world resources should be controlled by our International Organization."

NEW COMPUTER CLUB

Members include: John Liu, Jay Lowenstein, Andrew Maevsky, David Rosenbaum, Adam Altman, Cesar Habif Faculty Advisor: Mr. Warren

The Chess Club is an organization existing for two purposes; the promotion of passed pawns, and the perpetuation of the idea that blood, not games, should be drawn. During the off-season, we play endless games of "bughouse", and five-minute chess. Our fall and winter schedule is filled with matches against other schools. We meet every Friday, in the cafeteria. All are Welcome.

STRATEGIC GAMES CLUB

Since it was founded last year, the Strategic Games Club has generated much interest, and expanded greatly. S.G.C. members are provided the opportunity to learn and play a variety of educational and intellectually stimulating games including Go, war games, business strategy games — any games that require skill and imagination. SGC frequently holds tournaments for interested students.

The Key Club, one of the largest organizations in the school, is a service organization affiliated with the Kiwanis Club. This year our major fund raising activities were the annual Thanksgiving Raffle, the Faculty Auction, and the sale of BHS hats. All of the money raised by the Key Club is donated to Dollars for Scholars.

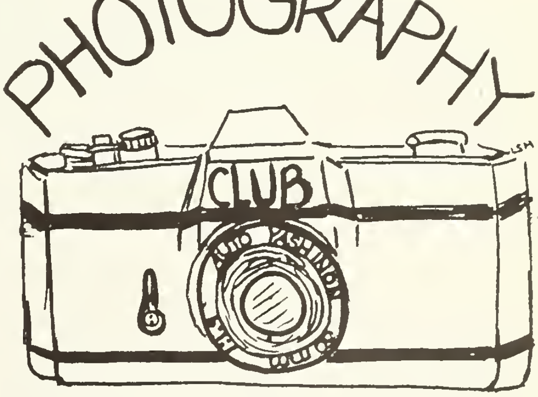
OFFICERS
Debbie Malick, Charlie Hughes, Alice Connorton

In the spring of 1974, a small group of students, Scott MacGillivray, Walter O'Regan, and faculty advisor, Mrs. Christine Patterson, informally organized a group of film enthusiasts. The group has sponsored a variety of movies, including a Hitchcock and Horror series, Casino Royal, and Monty Python's And Now For Something Completely Different. Admission to these films is, and will remain, free.

Thanks to Jori Cedar and Mr. Ken Bernstein, the Photography Club, known widely as the Photo Fiends, has spent many bright moments in the darkroom this year. The club has taught members how to develop their film, print, and mount their photos.

Brookline High has always had talented photographers, and the club strives to develop novices and expose beginners to the mysteries of the art, so they can enlarge upon their knowledge and focus spare time on fun.



DRAMATICS SOCIETY

The Dramatics Society counts about seventy-five members, who produce several plays each year under the direction of faculty advisor Edward Belliveau. This year's fall production was "Spoon River Anthology" by Edgar Lee Masters.

Officers

Lo que hemos obtenido aquí
Es nada más que un cimiento,
Con que construiremos
La estructura de una vida,
Día a día, paso a paso.

Cada experiencia,
Cada palabra que decimos,
Añade un ladrillo al cimiento;
Y cada piedra caerá
En su propio lugar,
Al ordenarse los momentos vividos.

What we have obtained here
Is nothing more than a foundation,
On which we will build
The structure of a life,
Day by day; step by step.

Each experience,
Each word that we speak,
Adds a brick to the foundation;
And each stone will fall
In its own place,
In the array of moments past.
